

Regarding the wording on page 23849, third column of the proposed FMCSA rule, docket # FMCSA-2001-11117: "Learner's permit" It is recommended that for clarity and national consistency that the text refer to "instruction permits" rather than "learner's permits", and that the text simply say that states are prohibited from issuing an instruction permit with a hazardous materials endorsement.